Dear Sirs

Report and order following the investigation of an incident with ram door blown off BOP during connection test on Rowan Stavanger on 14 September 2020

From 2 September 2020 to 30 January 2021, we investigated an incident with a BOP where the door on the blind shear ram was blown off during a connection test on Rowan Stavanger on 14 September 2020.

Our report is attached.

The report contains a description of identified nonconformities. We would request an explanation of how the following will be dealt with by you.

- Nonconformity 7.1 - installations, systems and equipment
- Nonconformity 7.2 - lack of expertise on facility-specific equipment (NXT BOP)
- Nonconformity 7.3 - inadequate procedures and compliance
- Nonconformity 7.4 - lack of management of change (MOC) process
- Nonconformity 7.5 - unclear roles and responsibilities
- Nonconformity 7.6 - inadequate information-sharing
- Nonconformity 7.7 - inadequate organisation of work

We have identified serious breaches of the regulations – see chapter 7 of the report – and hereby issue the following order.

Pursuant to section 69 of the framework regulations on administrative decisions, see sections 6 and 21 of the management regulations on management of health, safety and the environment and on follow up respectively, Valaris is ordered to do the following.

- Systematically review the company's processes for managing change, including the system for ensuring facility-specific expertise and making provision for clear roles and responsibilities in the organisation, in order to ensure that the facility can be operated prudently in normal operation and in the event of hazards and accidents.
- Present a binding and scheduled plan for corrective measures which shows the priorities set for these measures and has a description of possible compensatory measures to be implemented until the nonconformity is corrected.

The deadline for complying with the order is 26 April 2021. We must be informed when the order has been complied with.

We would request a response to this letter no later 26 March 2021. We would also request that this letter and the report be made known to the elected officers for the workforce, including the safety delegates.

The report will be published on www.psa.no a week after the date of this letter at the earliest.

Yours faithfully

Irja Viste-Ollestad, by authority
Head of supervision
